Govt. Press have been, after due consideration, been exempted, in the G.O. of Sept 1929 (749F) from operation of the rules of recruitment; because, these app'ts are purely of a technical character, for which men with a long course of apprenticeship in the Press, & a pass in the respective tech. examⁿs would be more suited than those with purely academical qual^{ms}, & so, no useful purpose would likely be served by advertising such vacancies.

This position holds good even now, & so, these app'ts may, as before, be excluded from the scope of the Revised Rules of Recruitment. The special provisions in the G.O. (74F) may therefore continue to stand, unaffected by the ~~Revised~~ general provisions in the Revised Rules and may prevail.
